

2024 TRUMBULL COUNTY RESILIENCY SUMMIT

TRAUMA & RESILIENCY IN THE WORLD OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Participants in the day long professional development workshop will learn about initiatives to grow more resilient communities by gaining awareness of efforts to combat human trafficking.

OUR FEATURED SPEAKERS

Barbara Freeman

Barbara Freeman is a survivor of human trafficking from the Columbus area. She is one of the first graduates of CATCH Court (Changing Actions To Change Habits), a specialized docket in the Franklin County Municipal Court for women in the system who are victims of human trafficking. She is the CEO of the Freeman Project, which includes the Freeman Project House - a home for human trafficking survivors in Columbus.

Additional Presenters:

Jean-Philippe "JP" Rigaud, Special Agent, Ohio Attorney General's Bureau of Criminal Investigation

Judge Renee DiSalvo, Youngstown Municipal Court, Founder of GRACE Court, a specialized docket for victims of human trafficking

Karen Vadino, MSW, LPCC, OCPSII, Motivational Speaker, and Humorist

Hannah Swift, Director of Community Outreach, Training, and Case Manager Supervisor at Gracehaven

A panel of community experts will discuss how human trafficking impacts our community including children, teens, older adults and individuals with disabilities.

BROUGHT TO YOU BY:

REGISTER BY SEPT. 12

COST TO ATTEND: $75

Up to 6.25 CEs are pending for counseling, social work,
chemical dependency,
prevention and developmental disabilities

SEPTEMBER

27

8 AM - 4:30 PM

EASTWOOD EVENT
CENTRE